

NANAY Partners with DINGGIN for A Musical Revue: “All About Love”

Miami, Florida – February 10, 2002

NANAY, in partnership with DINGGIN, promises to delight the crowd with an intergenerational musical extravaganza entitled “All For Love”, to be shown at the North Miami Beach Performing Arts on Friday, March 1, 2002. DINGGIN is a choral group that promotes cultural appreciation and spiritual enlightenment through music. Because of its generous music ministry, DINGGIN is now well known in the Archdiocese of Miami, and is also a household name, especially in the Filipino- American homes.

The show is meant to entertain and inspire the audience with intergenerational musical numbers that are artistically blended together, enhanced by costumes and choreography, and presented by a talented cast. The selections range from theatrical/broadway to popular and contemporary music. A dance in festive choreography will open the show, followed by a mesmerizing duet between a doll with a clown, and then, by a romantic piano composition. The last part of the program will showcase popular love songs, ending with an inspirational song performed in grand, chorale style.

DAYAW Singers will also be performing in the show. This choral group was part of the original Himig Singers who won numerous awards including Grand Prize, Special Award from the city of Vienna; First Prize, Mixed Choir Category, 26th International Youth and Music Festival, Vienna, Austria, First Prize, Polyphonic Category and Fourth Prize, Folkloric Category, XV International Music Festival, Cantonigros, Spain.
