

2002 ANNUAL REPORT

JANUARY TO JUNE 2002 – REGISTERED CLIENTS

Elders 270
Youth 82

SERVICES:

1. Counseling	270
2. Transport	3220
3. Specialized transport	107
4. Health Support	270
5. Center-Based Socialization	203
6. Immigrant Refugees	41
7. Counseling and Respite II E 30	1054/1054

NORTH MIAMI RESIDENTS (53)

Black	6
Hispanic	5
White	15
Asians	27

INCOME RANGE

Very low	12
Low	24
Medium	17

INTERGENERATIONAL PROGRAM

Total number of high school students registered for membership/community service:
On file = 46

20 high school students received scholarships and/or strengthened their application for college admission based on their volunteerism in NANAY's Intergenerational Program (awards from March-June 2002). All 20 were highly recommended by NANAY President/CEO and./or NANAY Program Director.

Five (5) Student volunteers have written or spoken in community events and public interviews, giving NANAY credit for their enthusiasm in community service and volunteer work (Concon, Andrea, Theo, Michaella, Michael S).

INTERGENERATIONAL PROJECT SUMMARY:

August 31, 2001 – First Intergenerational Leadership Forum (NANAY Center), attended by 75 teenagers, 7 college students, 35 elders and 29 adults (total 146)

October 25 – 9 elders attended the Intergenerational Issues Forum on Civic Responsibilities, sponsored by Miami Dade Public Schools

November 2001 – 25 high school students marched with the NANAY elders at the Winternational Festival hosted by the City of North Miami

December 15, 2001 – A total of 150 children, youth, adults and elders participated and attended the “Intergenerational Talent Show” at NANAY Community Center.

January 11, 2002 – Intergenerational Workshop at NANAY Center- Turner Tech students gave a presentation to the elders about fire safety – questions and answers about smoke alarms, what to do in case of fire, and other safety checks at home

March 27 and April 27, 2002 – NANAY elders had a multicultural presentation for 3rd graders at Kinlock Park Elementary School, attended by 35 elementary students and 4 teachers/aides

March 28, 2002 – NANAY helped facilitate the All-Day ASPIRA Young Latinos Conference (with 75 participants, and 8 NANAY high school volunteers) at Miami Shores Country Club, to help empower high school students from Hispanic and Haitian backgrounds.

April 13, 2002 – A total of 75 children, youth, adults and elders attended NANAY's "Haitian Cultural Event", presented by volunteer students from Miami Dade Community College, North Miami Senior High School and North Miami Elementary School. "Ayabonmbe" drummers from Haiti also gave lessons/demonstrations on the meaning of the sounds of the drums.

May 15, 2002 – intergenerational choir performed at the Historical Museum of downtown Miami, in conjunction with "Biographies and Portraits" sponsored by Miami-Dade Public Schools

May 16 and June 4, 2002 - 30 students from Norland Middle School and 15 NANAY elders performed as an Intergenerational Choir at the Miami-Dade Center for the Arts, for "An Evening of Music" (May) and Awards Night (June)

=====

SENIOR ACTIVITIES

August 4 – Av-Med gave a workshop on Medicare Preferred topics (16 seniors)

August 7, 2001 attended the Citizens' Night Out at the Moca Plaza, sponsored by the City of North Miami in conjunction with the National Crime Prevention Month

August 19, 2001- Citizenship Drive at NANAY Center (9 elders)

September 1, 2001 – hosted the Ismaili Muslim Cultural and Community Forum (34)

September 16, 2001 – Joined the Unity Prayer at the Moca Plaza for the victims of September 11 Twin Towers tragedy

September 19, 2001 – entertained and performed for the disabled and frail elders residents of Villa Maria Adult Day Care.

September 28, 2002 – Had a Volunteer Night – Dinner and Presentation of Community Service Awards

October 6, 2001 – Had a Workshop on Breast Cancer in conjunction with the Cancer Awareness Month

October 14, 2001 – attended a pictorial presentation of “Scenic Places in the Philippines” presented by John A. Tanjangco, Director of Philippine Department of Tourism , New York City, and held at Miami Shores Community Church, hosted by Filipino American Association of Florida

October 27 – hosted the Chinese Cultural and Community Forum (91 attendees) and later performed at a fundraising event of St. James Church parishioners in North Miami

December 8 – Hosted the Japanese Cultural Community Forum

Jan 5, 2002 – performed during the intermission of Dayaw Concert at the Hollywood Performing Arts Center, co-hosted by NANAY and Filipino American Ministries

January 19, 2002 – 20 elders attended the book presentation by Philippine Senator Nikki Coseteng

February 9, 2002 – Korean Cultural Community Forum (62 attendees)

February 20, 2002 – entertained and performed for the disabled and frail elders residents of Villa Maria Adult Day Care

March 16, 2002 – Health Workshop on “Prevention of Disease” (12 seniors)

March 31 – attended the Annual Easter Sunday Picnic sponsored by Pampanguena Restaurant and Food Market

April 5, 2002- performed at the Asia Night co-sponsored by the UM Filipino Students Association at held at the Gusman Hall, University of Miami

April 20 and 21 – performed at the 9th Asian Food Fair and Cultural Show, at Morikami Park, Delray Beach, hosted by Bangladesh Association of Florida

April 25 – Had a Workshop on “Crimes Against the Elderly” at the NANAY Center presented by the North Miami Police Department

May 2, 2002 – 18 elders discussed the Ethical and Moral Issues of Death and Dying plus Living Will

May 11, 2001 – Mother’s Day Dinner Dance at Kovens Conference Center of Florida International University, North Miami Campus

May 21, 2002 = performed dances and Folk songs with the NANAY Choir at the Mayor of Miami’s Celebration of Older Americans’ Month at Coconut Grove Expo Center

May 25, 2002 – participated in the 4th Asian Pacific American Heritage Month Cultural Series with Miami Dade County Public Library System at Kendall Branch Library

June 1 & 2 – Held the International Expofest at the Miami Arena

January – Citizenship classes with Rose