

ANNUAL F.A.C.T. FESTIVAL

North Miami, Florida – May 23, 2008

NANAY participated in the annual F.A.C.T. Festival (Families Against Crime Together) by hosting a health fair at Griffing Park in North Miami on Saturday, April 26, 2008.

The event's focus was on bringing North Miami's families together and uniting them against crime and juvenile violence, made possible by a grant from The Children's Trust and annual sponsorship by Johnson & Wales University. Children and teens had a chance to learn how to use the 911 system properly, learn about crime prevention and much more from the North Miami Police Department and other local law enforcement safety agencies.

Through the health fair, NANAY provided free health support programs including blood pressure and diabetic screening.

Event attendees also enjoyed local entertainment, giveaways, raffle prizes and much more! Miami Dolphins players and cheerleaders was on-site to sign autographs during the afternoon. Parents were encouraged to bring their children to learn about the resources available to families, enjoy the entertainment and meet the police officers that protect and serve North Miami every day. Refreshments were also provided.
